FAST FACTS

Father Joe's Villages Retail division includes thrift store operations, daily auctions, quarterly specialty auctions, and household, auto and boat donations. Retail staff also work with businesses, churches and community organizations who host drives to collect new toys, blankets, clothes, and food.

Out with the old! Call today for pickup of your year-end donations

As we bid adieu to 2008 and welcome a new year, it's a good time to let go of your reusable household goods or unneeded vehicles.

Don't forget – all donations received on or before Dec. 31 are eligible for 2008 tax deductions.

Father Joe also makes it easy for you to donate usable furniture, clothing and sporting goods. To drop off your donation, check the drop-off locations below. To schedule a pickup in San Diego, just call 1.888.FATHERJOE. Please allow one week from time of call for pickup.

2009 - COMING ATTRACTIONS

16TH & MARKET RESIDENTIAL TOWER

San Diego's first ever affordable high-rise housing will open on the original site of the former St. Vincent de Paul Thrift Store. The building will be home to low-income individuals and families earning between 40 and 60 percent of San Diego's average median income.

Shop City DIGZ when you're looking for that mammoth find. The hip new retail shop at 16th & Market will offer clothes, sporting goods, and entertainment for young adults and teenagers. The shop's name and mascot honor the mammoth tusk discovered when digging to start construction on 16th & Market. We know you'll dig it.

APARTMENTS Boulevard

WORKFORCE AFFORDABLE HOUSING

A four-story building in North Park will provide housing for very-low-income families, those who earn 30 to 40 percent of the San Diego area median income.
